

ASSURANCE

There is nothing vague or fanciful about the Christian life. You may be certain that you have eternal life. Assurance does not rest on feelings, which are not reliable, but is based upon what God has said in His Word.

Write out and memorize: 1 John 1:9. *

Can we know for certain that we have eternal life? 1 John 5:13.

Who gives us an inward assurance that we are children of God? Romans 8:16.

Since feelings often change, upon what must we depend for assurance? Romans 15:4.

Why must assurance be based upon what God has said in His Word? I Peter 1:25.

Does this mean that we automatically cease sinning when we believe on the Lord Jesus Christ? 1 John 1:8, 10.

When temptation comes, what has God promised to do? 1 Corinthians 10:13.

If I fall into sin, what must I do? 1 John 1:9.

What will God then do?.....

* John and 1 John are two different New Testament books.
